

Course Syllabus

Business administration C 7.5 Credits*, First Cycle

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students shall be able to:

- explain current business administration theories and research questions and explain their practical implications
- prepare a literature review within the selected area of business administration
- identify and formulate current research questions within the selected area, be able to select relevant theories and models to analyse them
- critically review and conduct an opposition on a scientific work
- critically discuss and reflect on the societal and ethical aspects in the field of business administration

Course Content

Assessment

Forms of Study

Grades

The Swedish grades U–VG.

Prerequisites

120 credits at first cycle, of which 60 credits are in the main field of study, Business Administration, and include a course in Method, 7.5 credits

Subject:

Business Administration and Management

D.no:
Page 2(2)
GFÖ2XB

Group of Subjects:

Business Administration

Disciplinary Domain:

Social Science, 100%

This course can be included in the following main field(s) of study:

1. Business Administration and Management

Progression Indicator within (each) main field of study:

1. G2F

Approved:

Approved 22 August 2022

Valid from 22 August 2022